

A Florence Nightingale for the 21st century

Mark Bostridge, author of Florence Nightingale: The Woman and Her Legend, will launch the paperback edition of the book, on Monday, 11 May 2009, at the Govenor's Hall, St Thomas' Hospital, in London. Mr Bostridge is a British biographer and critic. The book is a major biography of Florence Nightingale and widely reviewed by the world media. At the London event, organized by the Florence Nightingale Museum, Mr Bostridge will present an illustrated lecture on: "A Florence Nightingale for the Twenty-First Century". For more information, please download the flier: Click here.